

Emily Sammons

JOUR225 Video Package Assignment

Visuals	Script
Anchor on Camera reading lead in.	AN INCIDENT INVOLVING PUPPIES WITH RABIES FROM OUT OF STATE BEING ADOPTED BY LOCAL FAMILIES, MAY LEAD TO MORE REGULATIONS AROUND CANINE VACCINATIONS THROUGHOUT COLORADO.
Video footage of puppies playing with Voice Over.	AFTER A LITTER OF 12 PUPPIES WERE EUTHANIZED FOR RABIES EXPOSURE IN 2024, THE ATTENTION OF MANY, INCLUDING LOCAL ANIMAL SERVICE FACILITIES AND STATE AUTHORITIES HAS SHIFTED TO PREVENTION OF THE VIRUS.
Sound Bite From Angelina S. the grooming salon manager for Wag N Wash	“AS A PRECAUTION WE HAD TO INCREASE OUR RESTRICTIONS ON PUPPIES THAT ARE TOO YOUNG FOR THEIR RABIES VACCINATION. WE CAN’T RISK OUR GROOMERS OR CLIENTS BEING EXPOSED.”
Out take of Anchor on camera wrapping up story.	PACFA, THE ORGANIZATION IN CHARGE OF ANIMAL CARE FACILITIES IN COLORADO, IS LOOKING INTO CHANGES THAT CAN BE MADE TO PREVENT FUTURE CASES OF THE DEADLY VIRUS BEING INTRODUCED INTO THE STATE. THANKS FOR JOINING ME, I’M EMILY FROM DOG NEWS COLORADO.

Video Link:

<https://youtu.be/Ys0tUqVqzs4>